That was an excellent technique. Fully realizing your own capabilities, you applied clear understanding of your limitations.

SFX DOOM

God's Papyrus has been ordered to protect the spirit medium, in other words, you.
However, since you are unable to command it yourself, it can only obey a single order.
After observing its movements, it seems it will react to only physical attacks

If that's the case, all I need to do is use a different method of attack apart from physical ones
There is a variety of black magic
For instance...
'Curses'...
BLACK MAGIC CURSE
MARIONETTE MANIPULATION SPELL
With this, your body is now in my control.
Not only your body, but even letting out your own voice is all forbidden without my consent
As long as the attack isn't physical, God's Papyrus shouldn't react...
And it shouldn't be possible for you to break this curse

Spirit Medium You have lost your chance.
When I first blocked an attack from God's Papyrus...
Rather than counter-attacking, you should have fled.

Supreme Witch, did the potion take effect?
I poured the entire bottle. With that much, the potency of the brew is enough to make a thousand demons fall into an eternal slumber.

However, our opponent is an Archdevil. The effects of the brew will not last long
With Mephistopheles, I assume the effects will last about half a day

Also, before he fell asleep, he enshrouded himself in flames
The Flame of Awakening. He threw up the flames that reside within his core.
Even melting away the black magic I cast in the process... The flames act like a shield.

But securing the valuable commodities take priority.

After I secure the remaining two humans, I will take care of the Archdevil

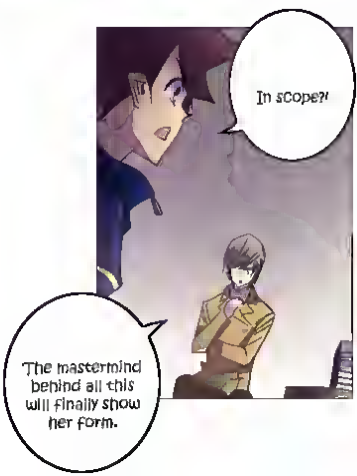
The situation is still in scope of what I predicted.



In scope?
The mastermind behind all this will finally show her form.

Since we confirmed that Chairman Shiole returned, all that's left is the Supreme Witch.
I don't believe it! The Supreme Witch is the one who leads all of us witches!
I understand your disbelief, Airen.
However, under these circumstances, one must learn to doubt

The past and present... We cannot confirm any of them.

The problem is how Mephisto has not returned.
This shouldn't be possible with a single witch's strength.

So she's not alone?! Don't tell me other witches are involved?!
No, if that was the case, we would have already been attack. I'm sure she is the only witch involved..
If she received outside help ..
She must have called in a 'helper' in order to fight Mephisto

Then... Who?!

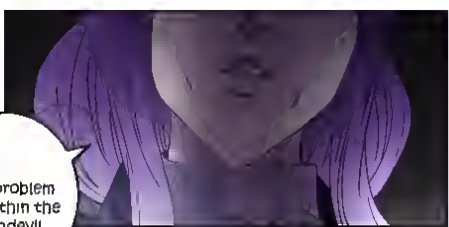
Supreme Witch ..
Is it alright for you to walk about?

Yes, thanks to everyone's efforts. I have recovered substantially

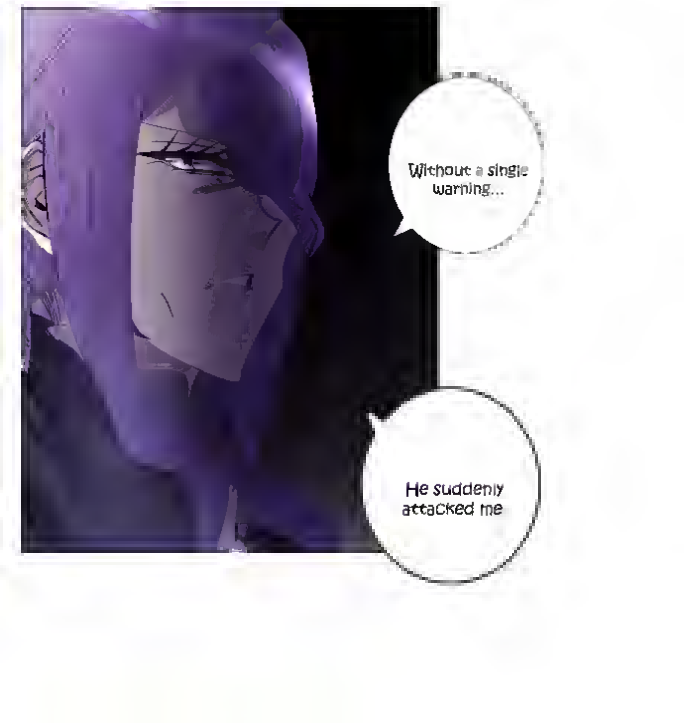
However



The problem lies within the Archdevil.

The situation has turned grim.

Mephisto-
him...?
Archdevils are known to be difficult beings.
To the point where nobody is able to lay a hand on them whilst they throw a tantrum.
Although Airen has risked her life to bring him here... A devil is a devil.



Without a single warning...
He suddenly attacked me

Mephisto-nim ... Attacked you...?!
Thankfully, I utilized some witches' potion against him...
And was able to capture him temporarily without any harm

However, the problem has just begun

The humans that the Archdevil has brought in tow...
Are humans with connections to a devil. They could become possible threats.
FAUST, SOO-IN, AND SHI-HOON-NIM...?!
Th-That can't be true!
They came all this way because I sought them for help.
Even Upper-class Witch Violine utilized chess in the forest... In order to confirm that the humans are innocent.
That is also how the Spirit Medium answered. That she is innocent...
I also think the same.

However, . .
With this incident involving an Archdevil
I have no choice but to judge those involved in this case.

I will be able to see the truth once I

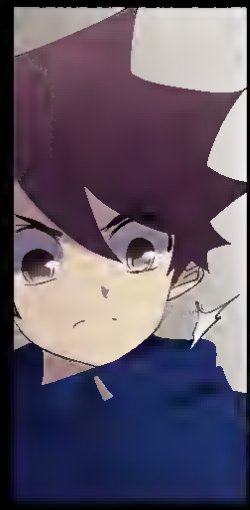
Now that Airen is gone, let's also prepare.

Prepare? For what?
Combat.
SPREAD
Here, take a look at this map

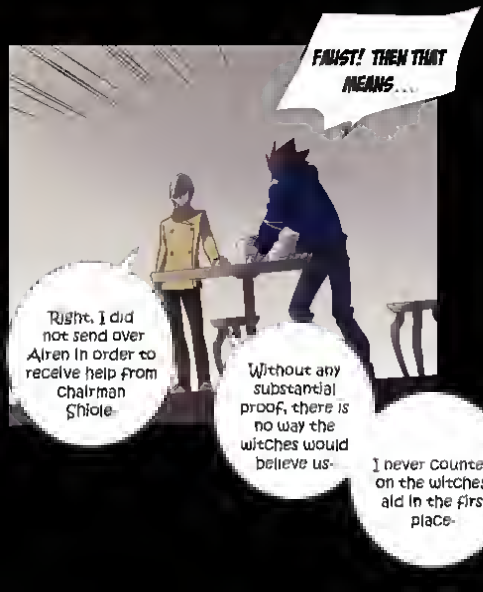
In order for Airen to meet Chairman Shiole, she has to pass through this long corridor
Although this is the path Airen will take, it is also the path our culprit will go through in order to capture us
If the Supreme Witch managed to put down Ms. Goo-in and Mephisto, she'll come through here



Then doesn't that mean Airen will come in contact with the Supreme Witch?!
Right, and Airen also knows where we're staying.
The Supreme Witch will also presume the same.
If that's the case... She'll probably deceive Airen into revealing our location.
Even if she doesn't succeed in convincing Airen...
She'll probably follow her back to our room

This location here.

POINT
The passage that links the central hall and great hall.
With our level of strength... This location is the prime spot to launch an ambush...



FAUST! THEN THAT MEANS...
Right. I did not send over Airen in order to receive help from Chairman Shiole.
Without any substantial proof, there is no way the witches would believe us.
I never counted on the witches aid in the first place.

We have no choice but to take her on with our strength...
Our opponent is someone able to restrain Mephisto
The difference between our strength is overwhelming
We'll only have one chance at victory...
Luring our opponent to the most favorable battlefield...

Is the best measure we can take right now...

It was perfect for hiding so sneaking around wasn't a problem
I'm used to sneaking around when I come home late anyways.
WHY YOU~!!
"TN: LOL REALLY?
Also, this scenario is exactly as Faust planned *

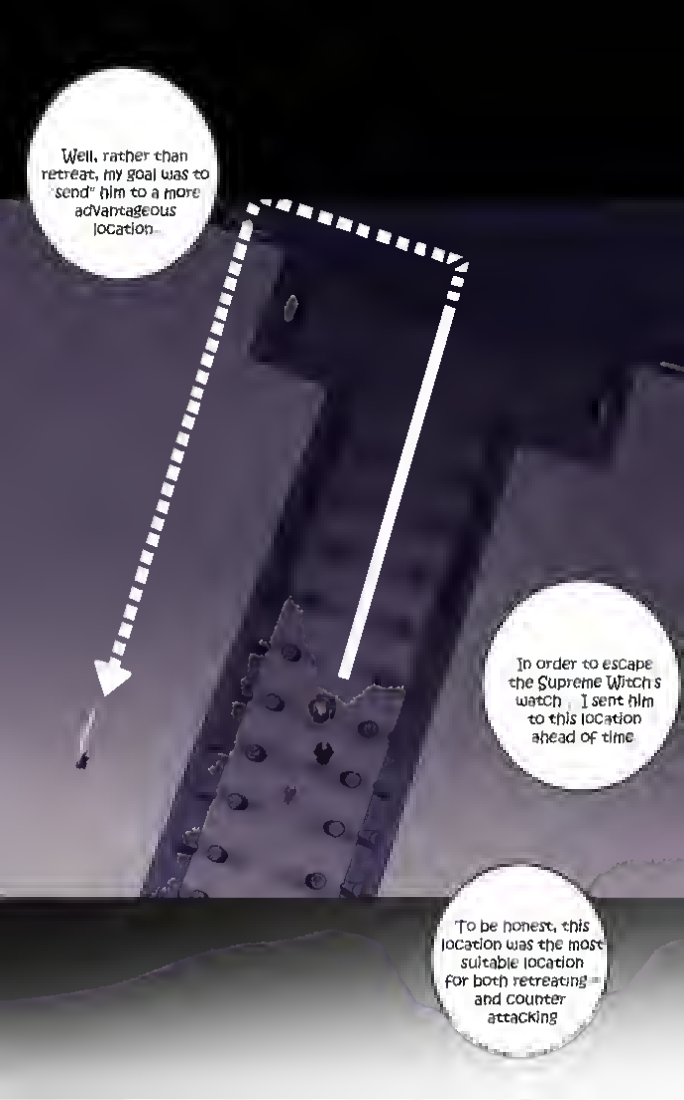
As Faust planned?

I deduced that the situation had turned for the worse the moment God's Papyrus came back from guarding you, Ms Soo-in
In order to rescue Ms. Soo-in and Mephisto We staged an ambush for the Supreme Witch
Of course, I already considered what courses to take whether the ambush fails or succeeds
The bigger problem lied in if we had failed.
At that moment, I decided to have one of us retreat.



Well, rather than retreat, my goal was to send him to a more advantageous location
In order to escape the Supreme Witch's watch, I sent him to this location ahead of time
To be honest, this location was the most suitable location for both retreating and counter attacking

I sent Shi-hoon before the Supreme Witch arrived and hid his body.
And since I got captured...

I was bound to be taken to the same place you were held captive.
Afterwards... All I had to do was wait.

The moment the Supreme Witch departs to search for Shi-hoon...

The most ideal opportunity...
TO POOL OUR STRENGTH... AND ATTACK THE REMAINING OPPONENT WOULD APPEAR...

SO HE HAD

'Dream of Slumber'.
A top grade potion, even among the witches' core potions. A very potent brew.

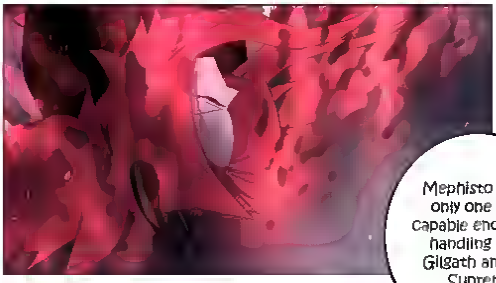
A brew so fearsome, that one breath would cast the victim... In an everlasting slumber.
WHAT?!

Then what about Mephisto? Is there a way to wake him up?
Since Mephisto is an archdevil, I'm sure it wouldn't take full effect.
If we leave him alone, he'll come around eventually. As Ms. Soo-in said before, he'll wake up in half a day.
Within that time, it won't be possible for us to last against Gilgath and the Supreme Witch's advances

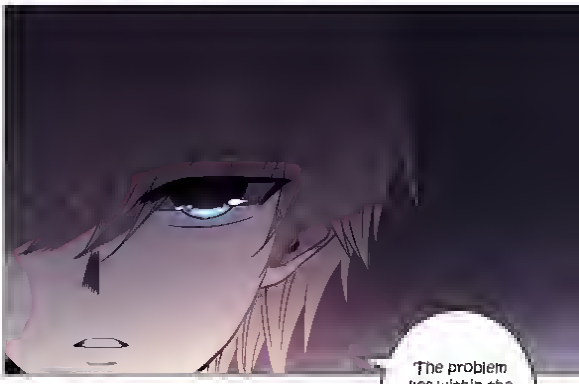
Faust, what about Michael-nim?

I have already tried to get in contact with him the moment Ms Soo-in and Mephisto went in...
But since Michael him resides in heaven, it will take him quite some time to come.
At the very least, he won't be able to arrive before Mephisto awakes

So basically... We have no other choice but to wake Mephisto up ourselves
We must create an "antidote"
An antidote?!



Mephisto is the only one here capable enough of handling both Gilgath and the Supreme Witch



The problem lies within the method of creating the antidote...

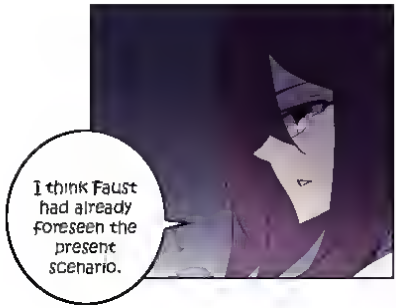
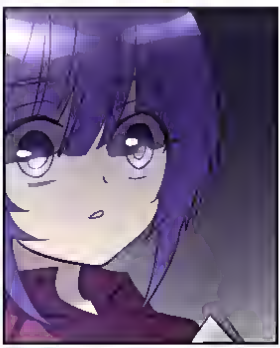
Why are you in the brewing room...?
I heard about everything from Faust and came here.
You saw the memo as well, right Airen?

Ah, yes... Here...
I heard... He left a memo before he clashed with the Supreme Witch.
That's why I came here.



I think Faust had already foreseen the present scenario.



But, I...
Just don't know what I should do...
Whether to trust you all... Or to trust the Supreme Witch...
Everything is a mess...

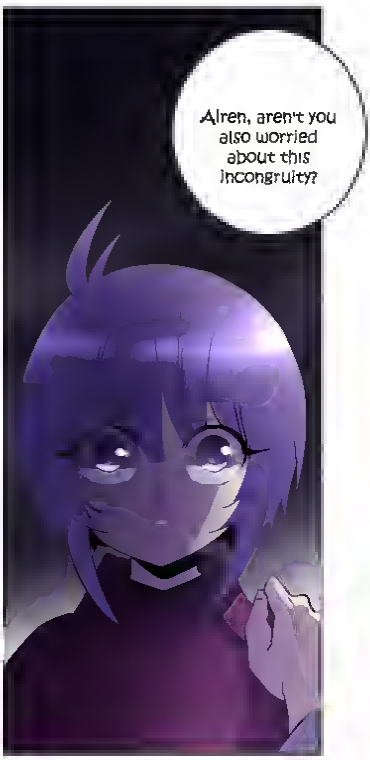
PLACE
I know. The current situation is a complete mess

If that's the case, you have no other choice but to find out yourself, right?

The truth...

We came here to treat the Supreme Witch because Airen asked us
The lives of five witches were lost, so we presumed this was a dangerous and incurable disease
However, Airen saw her, right?
The Supreme Witch... Is completely fine. As if she never suffered from anything to begin with...

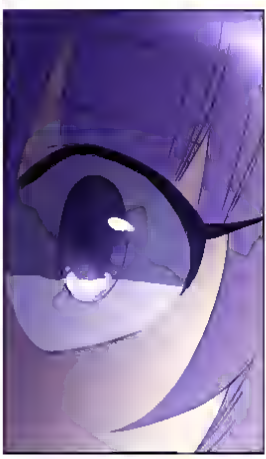
So, do you really think... She caught an illness?



Or do you really think we're aiming for the Supreme Witch?
N-NOT AT ALL!
I just think ..
If that's the case, lend us your strength.

This isn't for our sake...
Nor for the Supreme Witch's sake...

For your own sake... And for the sake of all the witches...



You will reveal the truth.

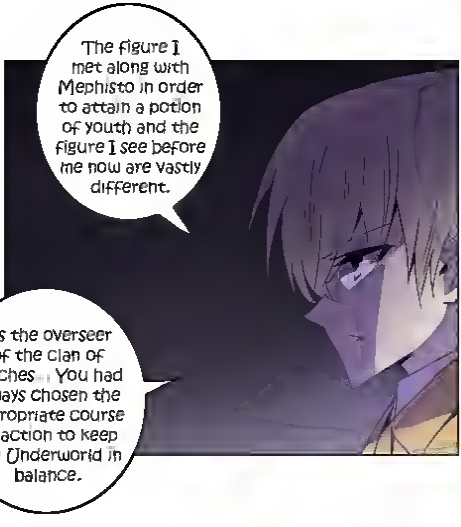
Supreme Witch...

You have truly changed...

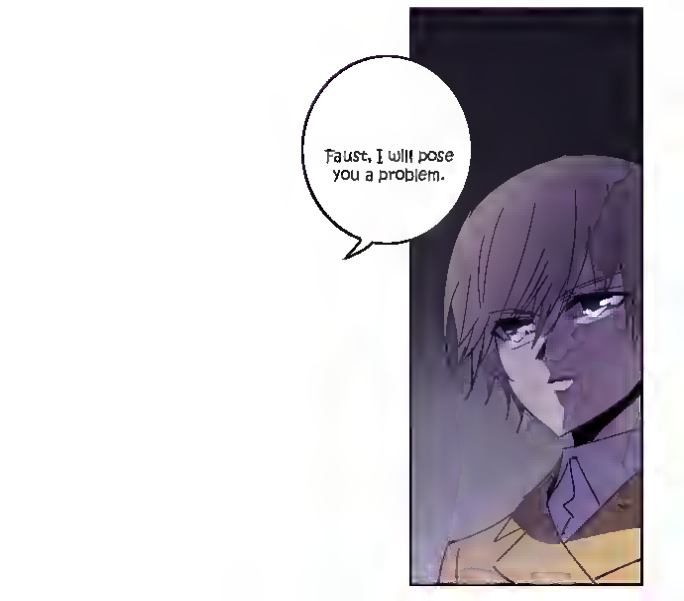


The figure I met along with Mephisto in order to attain a potion of youth and the figure I see before me now are vastly different.
As the overseer of the clan of witches... You had always chosen the appropriate course of action to keep the Underworld in balance.

Supreme witch, what is it that you truly desire?

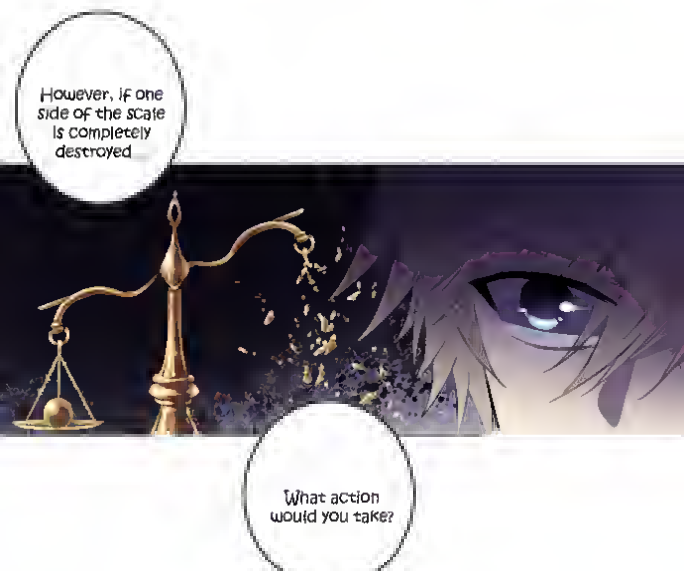
Of course ...
Everything is for the sake of the witches' clan.
The witches are a dying clan, consisting of merely 500 members. In order to simply reproduce, we must put our lives on the line.
Our endless research in medicine and spells along with our vast collection of information are all actions of self preservation.
In our position, Angels, Devils, and Demons... Any of the these three forces capable of influencing the Underworld are potential threats.
This is why we took the role of judge in order to create balance between the three powers

The only reason why we aided the angels in containing the demons...
Was in order to keep the demon's rapidly growing forces in check.
Then why are you now cooperating with the demons?



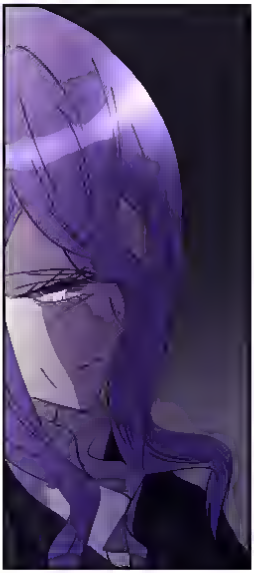
Faust, I will pose you a problem.

Imagine there is a single scale.
As both sides tip, you have carefully placed these two sides in balance...



However, if one side of the scale is completely destroyed...
What action would you take?

This situation is similar to a spilled cup of water.
Once the cup is spilled, there is no decision to make. There is only a single path available for the sake of survival
Are you saying...
The demons... Have become a force powerful enough to oppose the Angels' and Devils' overwhelming strength?



300 years ago...
The greatest incident that took place involving both witches and demons... The Ancient Library Massacre
The one responsible for the incident was Upper-class Witch Liselore
It was recorded that before her execution... She had a private meeting with you in her cell

COME READ HIGH QUALITY SCANS AT

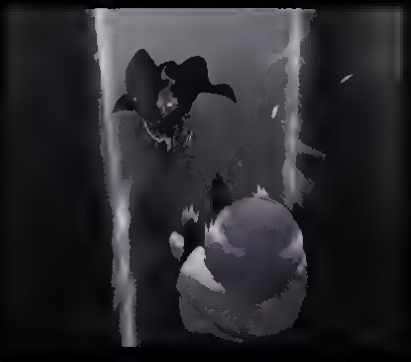
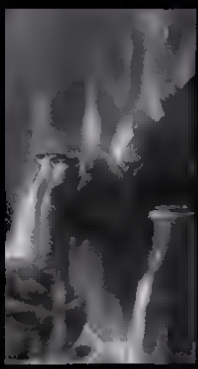
Faust-nim...
About Liselot.

She truly was a genius.

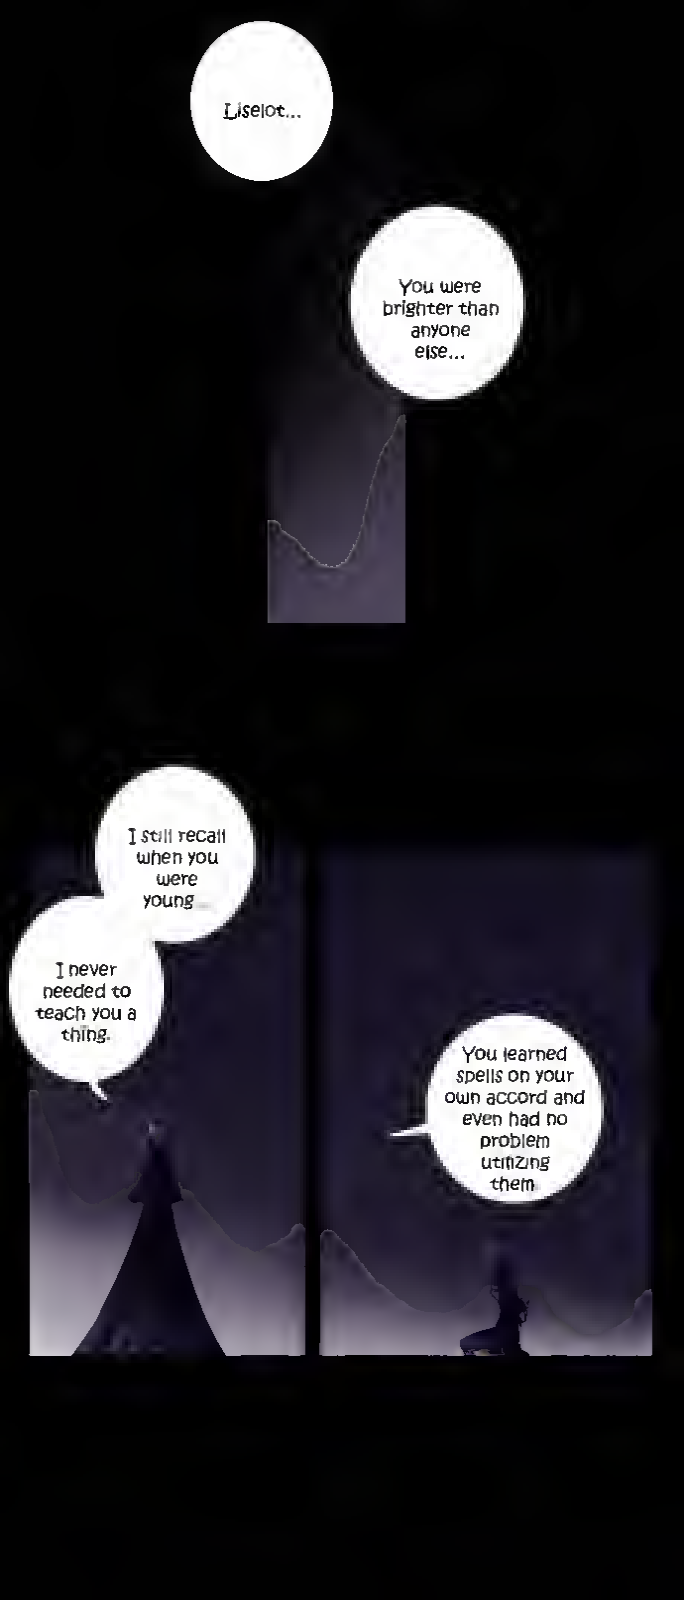
She surpassed every witch in history...



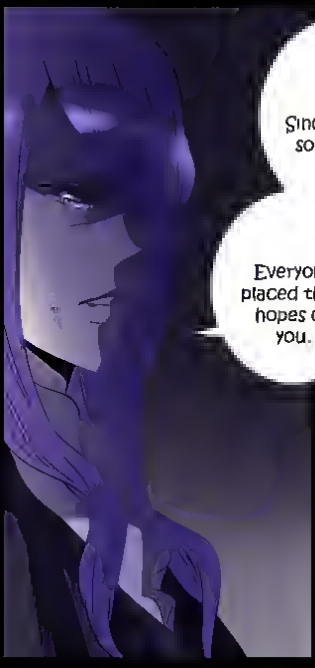


300 YEARS AGO...

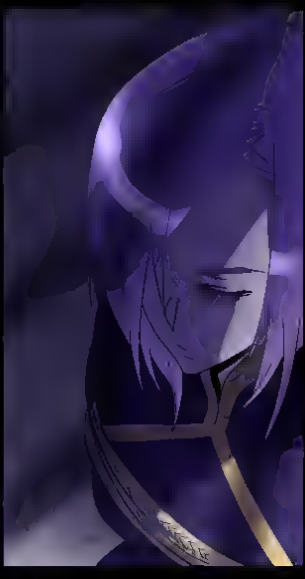
AFTER THE ANCIENT WITCHES' LIBRARY INCIDENT WAS RESOLVED...



Liselot...
You were brighter than anyone else...
I still recall when you were young...
I never needed to teach you a thing.
You learned spells on your own accord and even had no problem utilizing them.



Since you were so brilliant...
Everyone placed their hopes on you.



So, the reasons why you deceived us and cooperated with the demons...
And why you wielded a sword against your own comrades and killed her... I must hear everything.
Supreme Witch-nim, I believe I placed the clan higher than anyone else

However, our Witches' clan only has 500 remaining members
Even now, for the sake of our clan... We have no choice but to befriend several forces and keep them in balance.
Witches potions, spells knowledge.... These are the only lifelines we hold
But they are not enough to protect our clan
This is why we needed a new form of strength
A overwhelming power... So that we need not aid of others...

I will soon be burned at the stake...

The moment I was trapped in the Ancient Witches' Library, I knew my fate was already sealed.
I know the only choice I can make now is to peacefully accept my death...
However, I cannot die in a place like this.

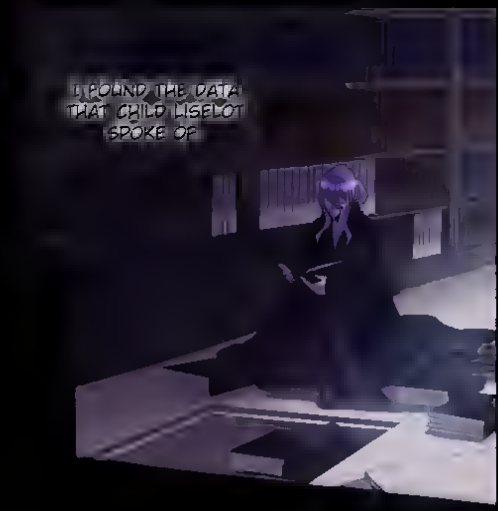
I have so much more to do

Before a witch passes on, she bestows her research unto another witch.
You can say the witch would become a successor to their research.
The reason for all this is because the knowledge we pass on is far superior than those of other clans.

In my personal research lab .. You will find all my data under the floor in the upper-right corner.
Once I have turned to ashes, please look over my research.
This is my final request.

...I...
Hold no regrets on the decisions I made...
Mother...

SFX- BLAAAAZE



I FOUND THE DATA THAT CHILD LISELOT SPOKE OF

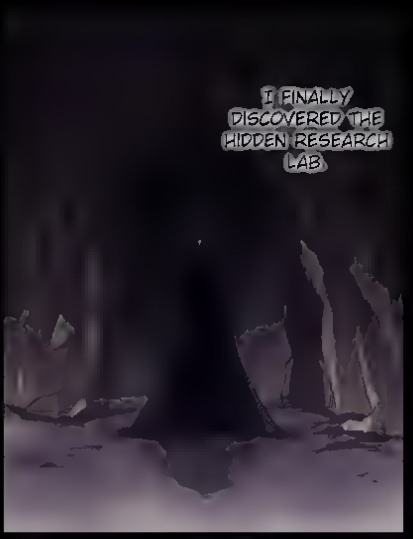
AS I LOOKED OVER HER THOUGHTS, WORRIES...
AND HER SINCERITY COULD BE FELT.

AND AS I READ THE FINAL CHAPTER...

I DISCOVERED AN UNBELIEVABLE TRUTH.
LISELOT'S LAST RESEARCH...
HAD DATA BASED ON IDEAS COMPLETELY UNFATHOMABLE TO ANY WITCH.

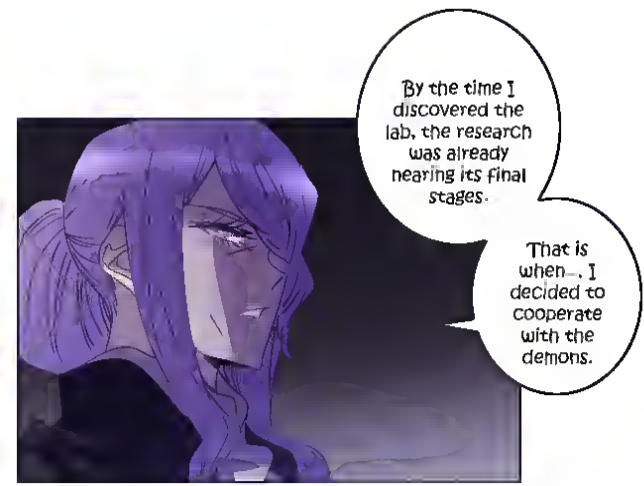
AN UNIMAGINABLE DOMAIN.
IT WAS SOMETHING I COULDN'T BELIEVE WITHOUT SEEING IT FOR MYSELF.
HOWEVER, ONLY THE RESEARCH DATA REMAINED. THE PLACE SHE HELD HER RESEARCH WERE NOT WRITTEN.
I USED THE DATA AS FOUNDATION AND WENT OFF TO SEE IT PERSONALLY.
Batoto.net

AND HUNDRED YEARS PASSED...



WHAT LIED IN FRONT OF ME... WAS STARTLING TECHNICALITY BEYOND OF WHAT I HAVE EVER SEEN.
LISELOT HAD BEEN RESEARCHING ALONGSIDE DEMONS WITHIN THAT LAB.
ONLY AFTER SEEING EVERYTHING FOR MYSELF, I BEGAN TO REALIZE THE TRUTH SHE TRIED TO IMPART.

LISELOT'S INTELLECT HAD ADVANCED DEMON TECHNOLOGY BY A THOUSAND YEARS.



By the time I discovered the lab, the research was already nearing its final stages.
That is when—. I decided to cooperate with the demons.

I hid the truth from all the witches.
This is because I realized that the library incident prohibited any cooperation with demons.

I decided to set my own resolve. That I would finish that child Liselot's research.

I will convince everyone with results of her research.

This is why the lives of five witches were claimed through experimentation.

Research involving the experimentation of witches' bodies
As all the cells in my body were being reconfigured... I endured and won over unimaginable pain...
And finally completed the experiment.
SFX SHHHHHH

SFX OOOOH
I am a new life form. The very first hybrid between...
WITCHES AND DEMONS.

WITCHES CAN ONLY BE FEMALE...
A CLAN THAT CANNOT PROSPER DUE TO THEIR INNATE TRA...
IN ORDER TO SURVIVE IN THE UNDERWORLD THE WITCHES MUST MAKE A CHOICE

There is only one goal.

However, the path is split in two.

Grow stronger through advancing spells and potions, carving out their path with their own hands.
Grow stronger by cooperating with the demons. A path where they grow stronger relying on another outside force.
Two paths that cannot coexist with each other.
Almost as if trapped in an ever-spinning wheel, the events from 300 years back are reoccurring once more ..

...Supreme Witch, I understand the decision you have made.
However, I wish to depart upon you a word of truth.

I have looked through the records of the human world and the Underworld
And instances where one force cooperates with another and remains intact were very few.
The reason being... In order to purge the poison within them...
They would utilize a stronger poison... Or something along the lines of that.
In the past, had the new poison won over the weaker one, as long as the new poison remained .. Death quickly followed.
The demons are a potent poison.

Faust-him, such information is useless to me.

SFX: FLASH

Now that I have succeeded in fusing witches and demons together, my research will be soon complete...

The future of the Underworld will completely overturned.

SFX: WHOOOOOOSH

If there is an attack based item and a defense based item among God's items...

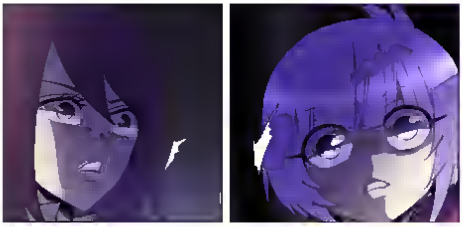
Impeachment of the Supreme Witch?!
Then all of you are forcing me to resign...?
Yes. It has been just decided.
The decision has been approved by all the participants in the meeting.
You are no longer the Supreme Witch.

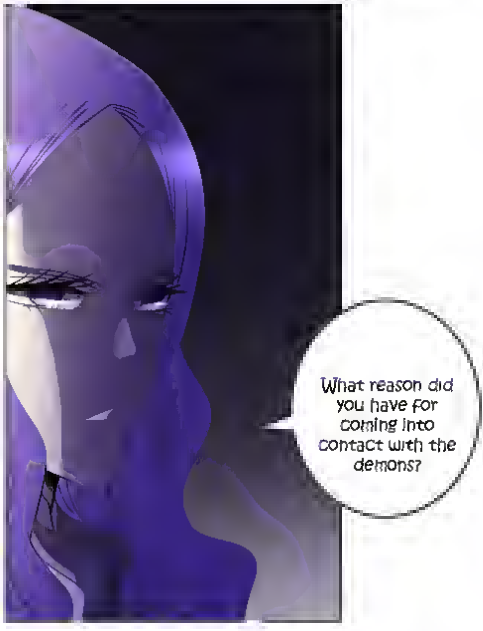
Haelia-nim.

What in the world are you talking about, Chairman Shiole?
You said the Witches' Council has been formed tonight, did you not?
Impeaching me this suddenly is...

Formal approval shall be made tomorrow.
Due to this being an emergency



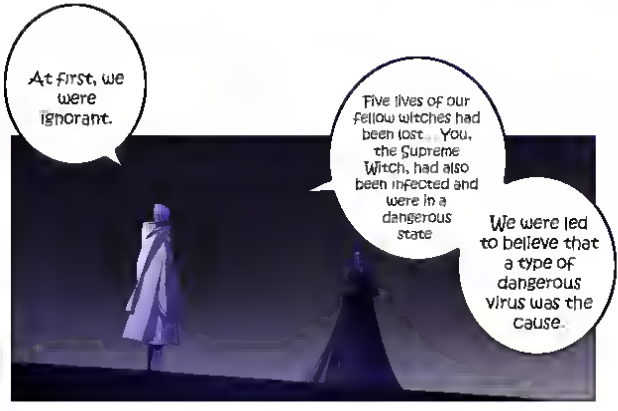
Surely you must be mad.
For what reason am I being impeached this suddenly?
You, yourself should know the reason better than all of us.



What reason did you have for coming into contact with the demons?

What... Are you speaking of?
Don't act as if you don't know
We have evidence

RAISE
Right in front of us, in fact
Supreme Witch.
POINT
Your body itself is clear evidence of this fact.



At first, we were ignorant.
Five lives of our fellow witches had been lost... You, the Supreme Witch, had also been infected and were in a dangerous state
We were led to believe that a type of dangerous virus was the cause.

All upper-class witches researched this virus day and night.
However, not only were we not able to find a treatment, we were unable to even identify the virus itself.

As the days went by, your conditioned worsened.
We had no choice but to resort to our final option.
BLAZE
Seeking help from the Archdevil Mephisto-pheles.

Only Mephisto-him was capable of transforming into the size of a cell, after all.
We spent an enormous amount of resources in order to bring over the Archdevil.
However, you, the Supreme Witch, decided to select Airen as the ideal person to send.

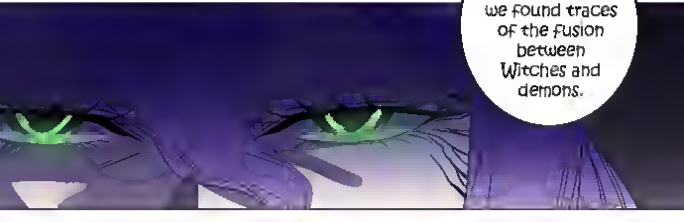
After Airen departed, we all delved into our research to cure this illness even further.
And we finally discovered a lead.

The illness .. Wasn't a virus at all.

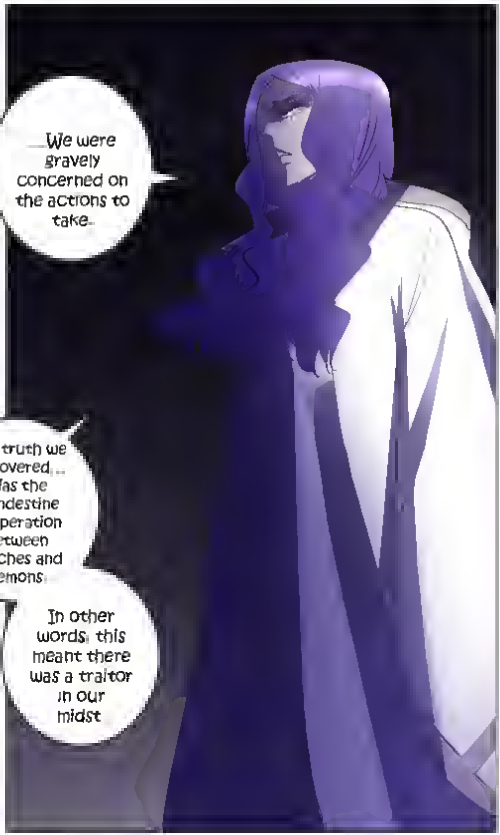
We discovered traces of substances that caused bodily change.

In other words, mutation.

What we found was an entirely new substance... one that never existed before.



In other words, we found traces of the fusion between Witches and demons.



...We were gravely concerned on the actions to take...
The truth we discovered... Was the clandestine cooperation between Witches and demons.
In other words, this meant there was a traitor in our midst

And that traitor was you, the Supreme Witch...
We cautiously made preparations to oppose you.
The moment Mephisto-nim arrived, complications arose and you tried to dispose of him...
With such an urgent situation at hand, we quickly settled on impeaching your position.

Perchance... If you wish to claim your innocence, show us your proof now.
Proof that you have not fused your body with that of a demon...

There is no need for that

As Chairman Shiole has stated...
I have indeed fused my own body with the cells of a demon.

But not some ordinary demon...

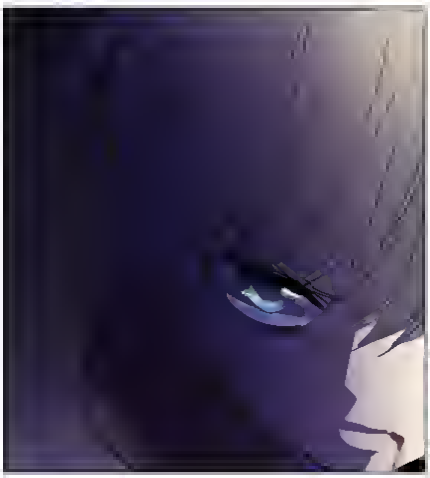
I have fused with those of the demon Gairon.

The president of the Nesk Company, the leading enterprise in trading souls The greatest pluto of all...

The intelligence of a witch along with the body of a demon.
This ideal fusion...
Is what Upper-class witch Liselot researched 300 years ago.

I have continued her research and completed it.
Partnering with the demons, after countless days of research...

We have created a strength that can rival those of the devils and angels.



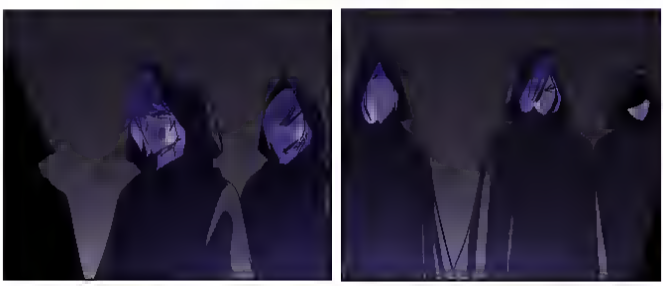
Eventually, the entire Underworld will be dominated by the demons...

And every single one of you will be forced to make a choice.

Either be for the demons...
Or against.
My daughter Liselot already foresaw this 300 years ago and partnered with the demons.

The cost of foreseeing everything was harsh.
However, I was able to carry out her dying wishes.

From this point on, us witches will break ties with the Angels and cooperate with the demons.
CLENCH



Then ...
Are we supposed to accept the five witches who were killed through your research?

Were they merely biological ingredients you required?
What gives you the right to sacrifice others for the sake of your own experiment?
Thanks to the data I gathered from them, I was able to complete my research.
I am the first successful fusion between Witches and demons.

Soon, all witches will gain a new body, fused between witches and demons.

HOW DID YOU...?!!!

Don't know. I'm sure I was knocked out...

He woke up since he took the antidote
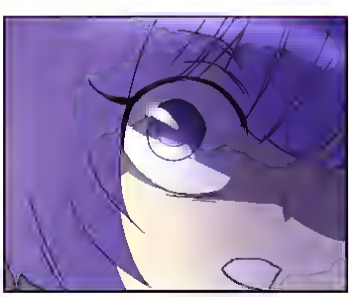
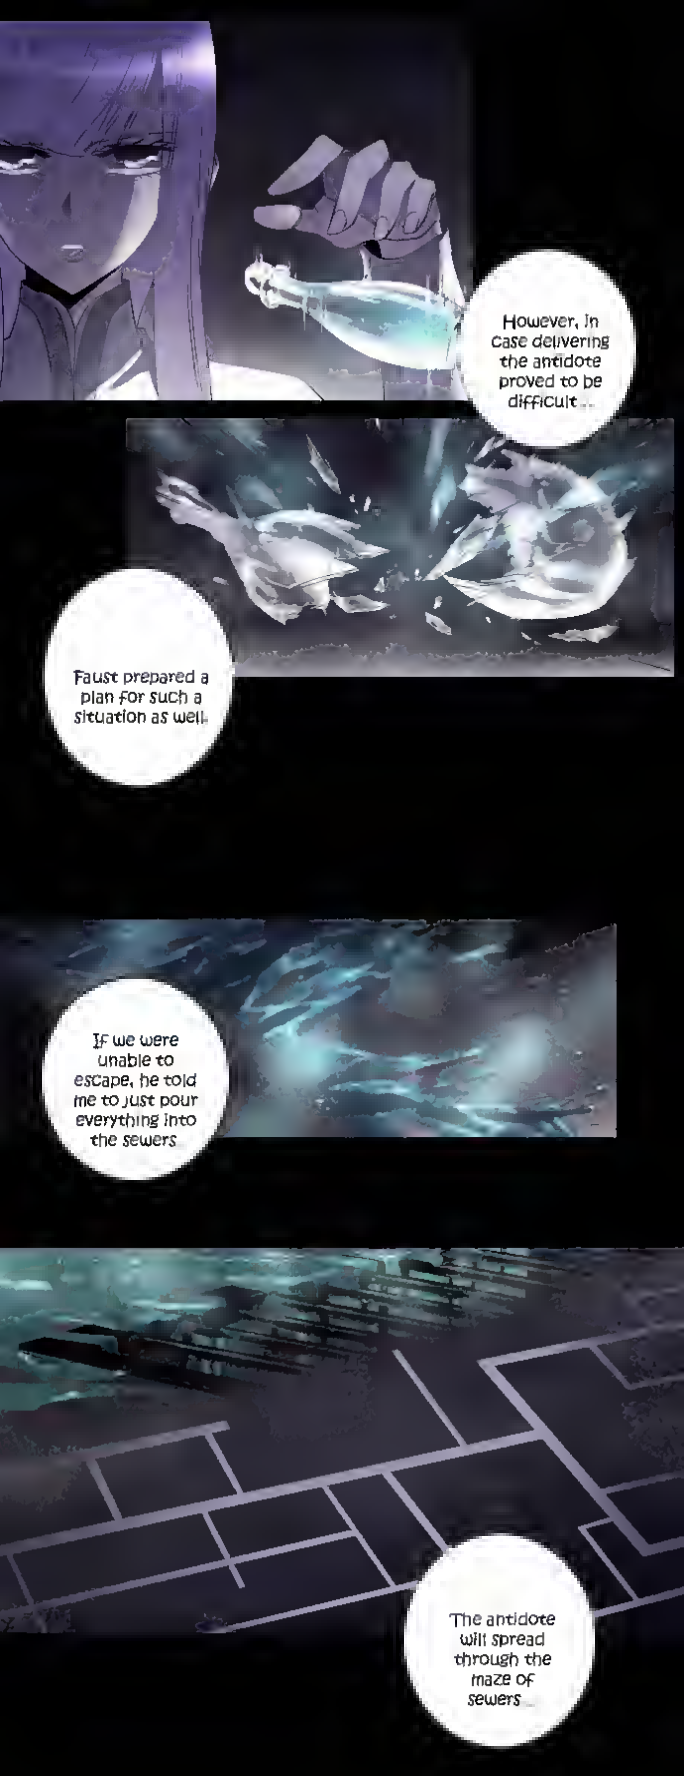
Though, he took it in a pretty roundabout way...

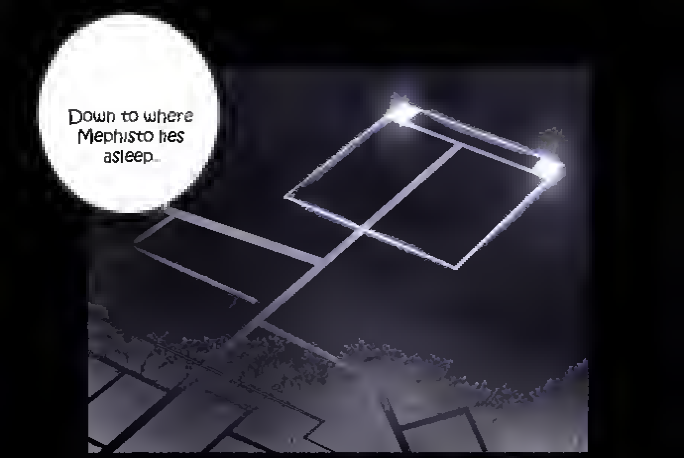


The brew that put Mephisto to sleep, the 'Dream of Slumber' takes form in something similar to a vapor.
The same applied to the antidote created by Ajren. The property was that of vapor.

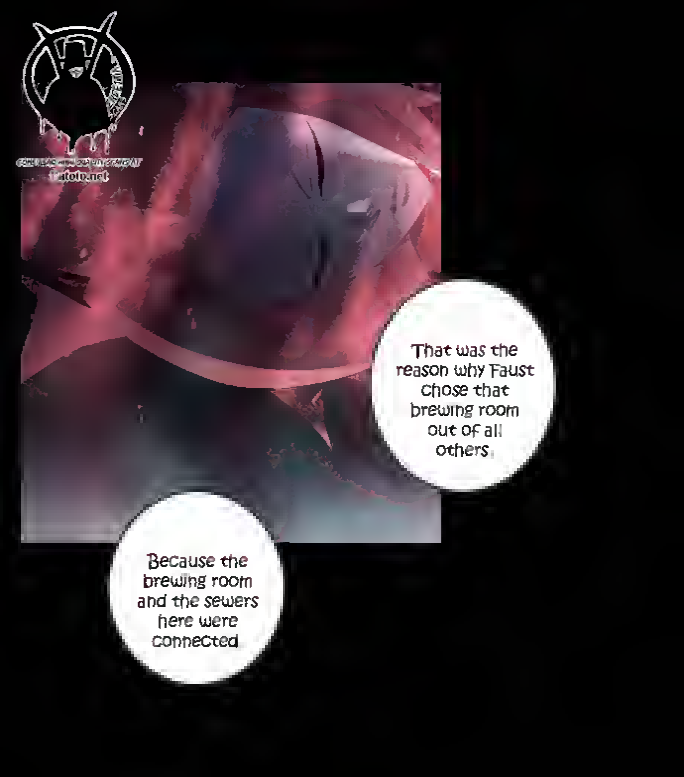
Our original plan was to place the antidote in a bottle and wake up Mephisto with it.



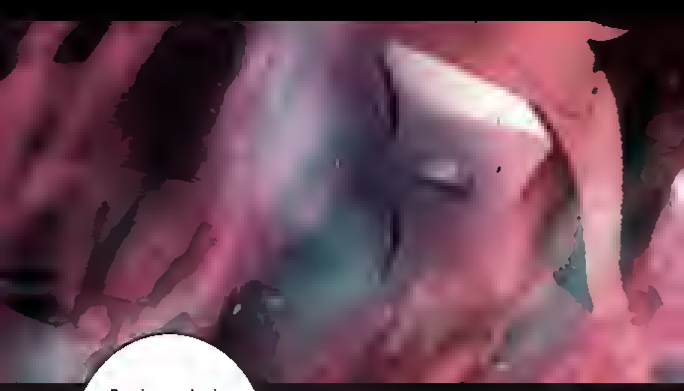
However, in case delivering the antidote proved to be difficult...
Faust prepared a plan for such a situation as well.
If we were unable to escape, he told me to just pour everything into the sewers.
The antidote will spread through the maze of sewers...



Down to where Mephisto lies asleep.



That was the reason why Faust chose that brewing room out of all others.
Because the brewing room and the sewers here were connected



In the end, the antidote reached its destination through the sewers . And woke up Mephisto.

Precautions if such a situation were to occur.

Everything was according to Faust's plans*.

A new form of magic.

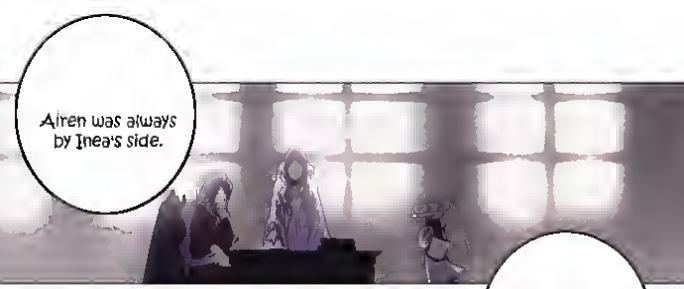
700 years back, no, perhaps longer than that...
The head librarian Inea spent her entire lifetime preparing an ultimate spell...

In order to protect all the witches... She created a spell which forms a barrier with invincible strength to ward of any foe

After the blazing incident that took her life...

Her research almost came to a halt. However, due to that child, we were able to continue her research once more.

Alren...



The sole apprentice of the head librarian Inea, and a child she held as her daughter.

Our comrades were sacri ficed

But what if. What if we had a method of absolutely protecting ourselves?
We won't need to concern ourselves with another's war.
We can stop all sacrifices made from meaningless fights.
A miraculous power that can protect all the witches
I truly believe such a thing exists.

Airen, although you may not be skilled in magic...

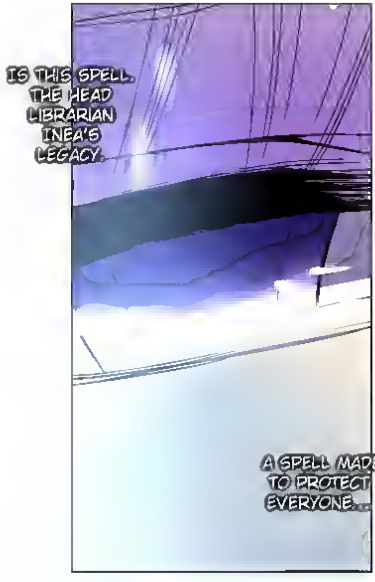
I can see the talent for spell creation within you.

What do you think... About studying new spell creation methods within the library with me?

Alright... Teacher.

THROUGH THIS INHERITANCE...

THE CULMINATION OF ALL HER RESEARCH...



IS THIS SPELL, THE HEAD LIBRARIAN INEA'S LEGACY.
A SPELL MADE TO PROTECT EVERYONE...

ONE WITH A NAME AKIN TO 'GOD'S SHIELD'.
